A TIME TO PRAY

(Psalm 121:1-8 and 123:1-4)

INTRODUCTION

The Old Testament had set times for prayer:

(Psalm 119:164) "seven times a day do I praise thee"
(Psalm 55:17) "evening, morning, and noon, will I pray"
(Dan. 6:10) "three times a day, prayed"
(Acts 3:1) "at the hour of prayer"

The New Testament makes prayer a way of life, something we do:

(Luke 18:1; Rms. 12:12; Eph. 6:18) (1 Thess. 5:17) "pray without ceasing"

It becomes a proof of devotion and dependence, and it's not a performance of duty.

(Mark 1:35) "In the morning, a great while before day, He rose up and went out, and departed into a desert place, and there prayed."
